Ice Breaker: If you HAD to give up one of your senses, which would it be and why?

Revelation

What to Expect

1. Jesus shows us what to expect.
2. Jesus wants us to trust that He's in control.
3. Jesus shows us how it all ends for unbelievers.

Sermon Discussion:

1. Pastor Brad said, "If you lose sight of whose hand all this is in, you will lose heart." Where do you most need to remember right now that Jesus is in control?
 - a. How does Revelation 5–6 help you see that situation differently?
2. Which of the four realities pictured by the horsemen feels most heavy to you right now?
 - a. How should Christians respond differently than the world?
3. Pastor Brad said the world keeps being shocked by human behavior because it does not understand sin. Where do you see the world trying to explain evil in ways that fall short of what the Bible says?
 - a. Why is it important for Christians to be honest about the depth of sin?
4. How does remembering that persecution has often led to revival and gospel advance change the way you think about suffering for Christ?
5. In what ways does it help you to know that trusting God does not mean pretending that hard things are not hard?
 - a. Are you comfortable crying out to God with grief, confusion, or "how long" prayers?
6. Pastor Brad said Revelation is not mainly a guide for predicting bad things, but an encouragement for enduring faithfully when they happen. Where do you need endurance right now?
 - a. What would faithfulness look like this week?
7. Revelation 6 shows the terror of unbelievers facing the wrath of the Lamb. How should that affect the way we think about people who do not know Christ? Who has God placed in your life who does not know Christ?
 - a. How should that shape the way we live this week?
 - b. What gospel conversation might God be calling you to start?
