

True Repentance and its Impact

Read 2 Corinthians 7:10-11 (particularly in the NIV translation)

Go and be reconciled to the Person You Have Sinned Against

i Confess Your Own Sin:

Proverbs 28:13 “He who conceals his sins does not prosper; but whoever confesses and forsakes them finds mercy”

- Address everyone involved

Who has been involved that you need to address?

- Avoid words like if, but or maybe
- Admit specific sins
- Acknowledge the hurt you have caused
- Accept the consequences
- Ask for forgiveness and allow time
- Alter your behavior

ii Repent of Your Sin:

- Repentance involves the use of our mind, emotion and will
- There is significant emotion in the expression of godly sorrow that leads to repentance
- Repentance produces actions which are done in a spirit of humility

- These actions are rapid, done with diligence and have a serious purpose.
- They are undertaken with a sense of alarm or even fear over the seriousness of our sin
- Repentance results in biblical thinking which has a vehement desire to clear our conscience and make any restitution necessary.
- Repentance has a zeal to do what is right and a longing to see God honored

See What this Godly Sorrow Should Produce in You:

- what earnestness having diligence and a serious purpose diligence in executing a specific plan of repentance
- what eagerness to clear yourselves, involves rapid actions eagerness to have a clear conscience
- what indignation, anger used to attack the problem not the person anger directed toward the sin in our lives
- what alarm,
a fear or phobia of what sin can do fear of the impact of sin
- what longing,
a vehement desire longing to be free of the impact of specific sins
- what concern,
demonstrating zeal
zeal to gain victory over the specific sin in our lives
- what readiness to see justice done.
a willingness to make all restitution readiness to make the necessary restitution

Make Specific Plans to Repent

A. Be Sure You See the Contrast of Godly Sorrow and Worldly Sorrow

- i Godly sorrow leads to repentance and salvation (not just of our souls but also salvation from the power of sin in our lives)
- ii Worldly sorrow produces regret that leads to death

B. Take Specific Steps of Obedience

i What specific sin in your life do you need to repent of?

What specific sins do you need to confess? Think about every sin that you've gotten tangled in through this event...

ii Who is holding you accountable to change?

You will probably need a 'Team' of people... who could be on that 'Team'? Select people who will hold you to the biblical truth – and not allow you 'justify' yourself and to get by...

iii Can you clearly communicate your purpose and plan to repent of specific sins?

Briefly describe your purpose and plan...

- iv Are you angry toward your sin? Are you using the energy from the anger to attack the problem and not other people?

- v How are you demonstrating fear toward falling into repetitive sin? See also Matt. 5:27-30 'Radical Amputation' What people, places, associations, objects, schedules, music, books, TV, etc. do you need to remove from your life to keep from sinning in this way again?
